

INTERNSHIPS AVAILABLE AT CANTON CLAY WORKS, LLC.

Canton, CT: Internships are available at Canton Clay Works, LLC, a premier ceramic studio in northwest CT. Applicants should have comprehensive education and experience in throwing and hand building techniques. Some teaching and wood firing experience preferred but not required. Arts management applicants are welcome as are recent BFA graduates (with a ceramics concentration).

- 12-15 hours of unpaid studio assistance per week required
- Mixing glazes, pugging clay, studio maintenance, maintenance and firing of numerous kilns (two varieties of wood kiln, Naborigama (salt and soda) and Climbing Train Kiln, Raku, Saggar, gas reduction)
- Teaching opportunities (adults and youth)
- Other duties as required.

Interns may participate in numerous group shows in our gallery. We request a one year commitment from our interns. Visit our website to learn more about us at www.cantonclayworks.com. Send artist statement, resume, written references and e-portfolio to cantonclayworks@yahoo.com. Questions, call 860-693-1000.